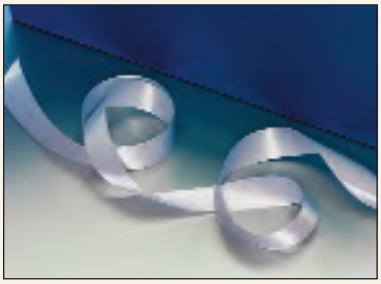
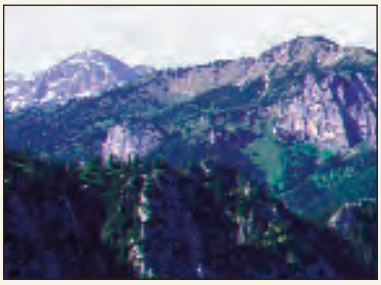
IN THIS ISSUE

Extraordinary People
by Elwood McQuaid 8
Sometimes special people cross our paths, showing us the best of what Christianity is all about. Let us introduce you to a few of these saints who have made a difference in life on this earth.

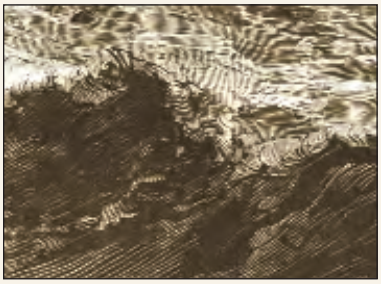


So Great Salvation
by David M. Levy 12
Nothing compares to what Christ did for us at Calvary. The blessings that accrue to us are manifold, and so are the responsibilities.



Highway to Holiness
by Richard D. Emmons 16
What does it take to live a holy life? If you can faithfully master three important points, you're well on your way.

The Blessing of Suffering
by Herb Hirt 20
Christians living in a pagan world are bound to encounter opposition. And though suffering for one's faith may be difficult, it produces some undeniable and sometimes surprising benefits.



Our God Cares
by Peter Colón 24
The Lord of the universe knows everything about you, including your needs. This excellent article explains how you can depend on Him because He is the perfect CARE-giver.

ABOUT THIS ISSUE

Ever have a desire to know some of the most extraordinary people in history? Well, in this issue you will meet some of the most intriguing, courageous, and unforgettable individuals who lived through one of the greatest periods of suffering in modern history. Yet, despite all the Devil and his minions could throw at them, they emerged triumphant and leave us with a legacy that must never be forgotten. The biblical backdrop for such heroic exploits is found in the exposition of Peter's first epistle to the church. It provides us with a road map through the tough times we are told to expect in the last days. In addition, you will meet the liberal opposition party in the religious world and see how it tries to take the high ground against Bible believers who have faith in God's enduring promises to Israel. All in all, it's a must-read issue. (Cover: Allan Davey/masterfile.com)
