IN THIS ISSUE

The Ghettoization of Israel
by Elwood McQuaid10
 Inferior status, limited opportunity, and heavy restrictions. These are characteristics of ghettos. And they seem eerily like what the world is trying to impose on the free and democratic nation of Israel.

The Birth That Changed the World
by Thomas C. Simcox.....14
 Hymns, tinsel, decorations, and good cheer used to flood America's public schools at Christmastime. Though these have all disappeared, one thing will never be erased.

Joseph of Nazareth
by James A. Showers18
 He was a carpenter with no aspirations to greatness. Yet he became great. This excellent article takes a deeper look at Joseph and the qualities that made him a man of God.

Believing Is Seeing
by Peter Colón.....24
 A real but unseen world exists that is controlled by the Lord. Here is a glimpse of it through the lens of the never-changing Word of God.

All About Angels
by Renald E. Showers26
 The word angel appears more than 300 times in God's Word. So it seems God wants us to know something about angels. This outstanding article explains their number, nature, and other important things.

ABOUT THIS ISSUE

Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some have unwittingly entertained angels" (Heb. 13:2). In a society obsessed with stories of warlocks, demons, evil spirits, and the occult, little or nothing is ever said about the host of angelic beings all about us who constantly minister to believers. In this issue of Israel My Glory, you will learn what the Bible has to say about these friends of the saints and, hopefully, be encouraged by personal testimonies. It's an exciting theme, tastefully illustrated by our art director, Tom Williams. Don't miss a word. Your spiritual understanding will grow—as will your confidence in the overwhelming depth of God's love and care. The cover is artist Stan Stein's depiction of the heavenly host (Digital composition and enhancement, Thomas E. Williams).
