ABOUT THIS ISSUE

Aging is an interesting part of life. For the young, each birthday is like a milestone to celebrate with unrestrained enthusiasm. But on reaching 60 or 70, for many the milestone becomes more like a millstone. Not so with the nation of Israel and The Friends of Israel Gospel Ministry. In this issue of Israel My Glory, you'll find out why Israel, at 60, still has everything to live for. For FOI, looking back at 70 years of service for the Messiah chronicles the laying of a foundation for what still lies before us. For both Israel and FOI, optimism, including a cause for celebration, is very much the theme. (Cover: flag, Walter Homan; digital composition and enhancement, Thomas E. Williams)
