ABOUT THIS ISSUE

If you've been to Israel and walked on the Temple Mount, you know what a special place it is. There's nowhere like it—a site holy to the world's top three religions: Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. If its structures could talk, oh what grand things we would hear. In a way, however, they do speak through archaeology, history, and the Bible. An expert in all three areas, Dr. Randall Price contributed heavily to this information-packed issue, which teaches the books of Ezra and Nehemiah as it delves into both the legitimate and fabricated history of the most contested real estate on Earth. In an age when fiction passes for truth, this issue is as relevant as today's headlines and filled with facts you'll want to hold on to. Our cover shot of the Old City of Jerusalem is by Alex Slobodkin.

IN THIS ISSUE

When the World Descended Into Madness

by Elwood McQuaid .....10
Hitler's evil obsession once plunged Germany into barbarism and madness that afflicted the entire world. And what lies on the horizon may be more madness in the making.

The Jewishness of the Temple Mount

by Randall Price .....14
So prolific is Muslim propaganda that many Westerners today question the Temple's historicity. So it's time to review the evidence.

Rebuilding the City of Gold

by Thomas C. Simcox .....18
Surrounded by trouble and enemies, Nehemiah forged ahead to repair and rebuild Jerusalem. If you think times have changed, you're in for a surprise.

Zerubbabel: Man With a Mission

by David M. Levy .....24
Today's Muslims claim the Jewish Temple of Jehovah never existed in Jerusalem. The Bible says differently, as you'll soon see.

Ezra and the Restoration Period

by Douglas Bookman .....28
When Ezra the scribe returned to Jerusalem from Babylon, he led a marvelous revival. So why does he seem underappreciated? Read on!
