ABOUT THIS ISSUE

There's a line in an old World War I song that urged people to prepare for the then-impending struggle in Europe: "So, prepare, say a prayer." The articles in this issue echo those notes. And while many today would rather ignore the negative images of the last days, Scripture begs to differ. The opening words of the book of Revelation promise a blessing to those who read and heed its messages of future events. Yes, you will read about the seal, bowl, and trumpet judgments, but also the glories of the Lord's promise to overcome. And in the mix are short, enlightening snippets you won't want to miss. So read on. It'll do you good and sharpen your appreciation for the pretribulational Rapture.

IN THIS ISSUE

The Tribulation's Silver Lining

by *Elwood McQuaid*10
 Humanity is about to hit the skids. But God has a reason for everything. Here is a peek at His purpose and the glorious silver lining.

The Beginning of the End

by *William L. Krewson*14
 When the Lord Jesus opens the first seal, God's final judgments will begin. And it will be the end of life on Earth as we know it.

The Coming 'Perfect Storm'

by *Peter Colón*18
 The Tribulation tempest is filled with wrath. And it's not God's wrath alone.

And the Trumpets Shall Sound

by Thomas C. Simcox.....24
 The trumpet judgments will affect the entire world's ecosystem: trees, water, and the very air we breathe.

Beware the Bowls!

by James A. Showers.....28
 The scene is God's courtroom in heaven. The bowls are about to be poured out, bringing to full measure God's wrath on sinful humanity.
