ABOUT THIS ISSUE

Why is it important to understand Bible truth and have a grasp of right theology? Because theology dictates what we do and why we do it. There is no better example than the burgeoning emergent church movement and the current errant rush toward Replacement Theology. We are now hearing from some with quasi-evangelical associations who claim that relying on Scripture as the primary source for faith and action is turning the Bible into a debilitating fetish. In this issue, you will find readable theological substance that sets the record straight. In addition, Craig Parshall warns of the danger of government control of the press. It's all here and much, much more, which makes this issue a cover-to-cover must-read. (Cover: Duby Tal/Albatross/Israelimages; digital enhancement, Thomas E. Williams)

IN THIS ISSUE

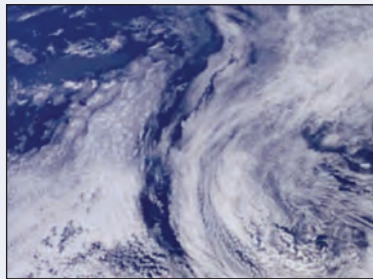

Christians Against Israel?

by *Elwood McQuaid*10
Palestinian Christians have come out with a document against Israel. But it reads surprisingly like it was written by militant Islamists.

Upholding the Truth

by *Richard D. Emmons*14
Dispensational Theology provides the best understanding of God's Word and His plan for creation. Here are three important reasons why.

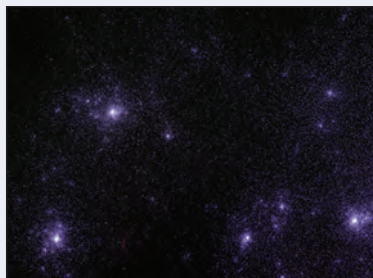

Replacement Theology: The Black Sheep of Christendom (Part 1)

by *James A. Showers*18
Replacement Theology crept into the early church and altered many things. In fact, you may unknowingly be living with some of those changes in your church today.

Israel's Primacy in God's Program

by *David M. Levy*24
For the past 4,000 years, Satan has incited hatred and persecution of the Jewish people with the objective of annihilating them. This article explains why.

We Answer to a Higher Authority

by *Steve Herzig*28
Christian Zionists have a deep commitment to Israel. Learn what motivates their love and how they are perceived by the Jewish community.
