IN THIS ISSUE

ALSO FEATURING

Remembering the Martyrs

by Elwood McQuaid ..... 10
When Jim Elliot was killed, the world was stunned. Today Christians die for their faith in record numbers, yet few people care. What has changed?

City of the Great King

by Thomas C. Simcox ..... 14
No place in the world has a story to tell like that of Jerusalem. This outstanding article will walk you through the city's biblical record—past and future.

Jerusalem and the Muslims

by Steve Herzig ..... 18
Why are Muslims so zealous for Jerusalem when the Qur'an doesn't even mention it? This article answers that question and many others.

Jerusalem Forgotten

by Christopher J. Katulka ..... 22
It was a city taxed to the hilt and crumbling into ruin. Even Mark Twain called it desolate. Here's how it got that way.

Promise Betrayed: Jerusalem Under British Rule

by Elliot Jager ..... 24
When the British took Jerusalem in the early 1900s, they did much to improve it. But they also were serial fumlbers in ways that affect the city even today.

Correction

On page 28 of our November/December 2014 issue, we said Charles Haddon Spurgeon preached a sermon on Christmas Eve 1914. That was when the sermon was published. He preached it in the 1800s. We deeply regret this error.

Our Cover: A beautiful view of the city of Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives and the Jewish cemetery there (Hanan Isachar/www.isachar-photography.com).
