ABOUT THIS ISSUE

The heartbeat of this issue is answering the call. You will be thrilled by the true stories of God's amazing power as seen in the lives of people like Richard Wurmbrand and George Mueller. Wurmbrand was a Jewish believer in Christ who overcame 14 years of unspeakable torture for his faith in a Communist prison. And the life of evangelist George Mueller of Bristol, England, will inspire you to pray with a new vision of what God can do as you read the miraculous stories of answered prayer. Mueller ministered to more than 10,000 orphans and established 117 schools with little more than the trust that God would supply. The Wurmbrand and Mueller stories are surrounded by challenges to believe God's power and promises in this day of supreme tests for His church. Promises meant just for you. IN THIS ISSUE

Now That the Smoke Has Cleared

by *Elwood McQuaid*10
 Nine years have passed since the tragedy of 9/11. Are we wiser and more diligent, or have we become what Lenin called "useful idiots"?

Fishers of Men

by *Adrian Rogers*14
 It may surprise you how much work goes into maintaining a fisherman's net . . . regardless of what you're fishing for.

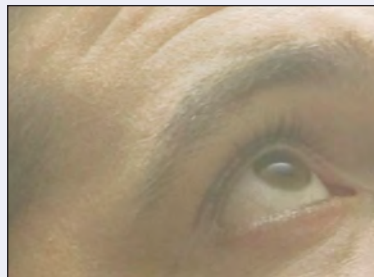

The Story of Richard Wurmbrand

by *Peter Colón*18
 He endured imprisonment by the Nazis and torture by the Communists to become one of the 20th century's most inspiring men of faith.

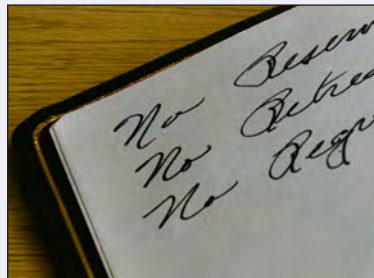

God's Call for the Directionally Challenged

by *Don Lough, Jr.*26
 Is it really possible to receive a clear directive from God? If you're wondering whether God is calling you to missions, this article may help.

A Missionary First, Last, and All the Time

by *Richard D. Emmons*28
 How much impact can a person make for Christ if he dies at the young age of 26? An enormous one, as Bill Borden showed the world.
