ABOUT THIS ISSUE

The spectacular, cascading waters of the Sa'ar waterfall pictured on the cover of this edition of Israel My Glory are a fitting introduction to our feature articles detailing the ministries of the Holy Spirit. The Sa'ar flows freely after the spring rains on Israel's Golan Heights and becomes a main source of the life-giving waters of the Jordan River. Pilgrims moving between majestic Mount Hermon and the Banyas (Caesarea Philippi) can pause at a bend in the road to drink in the Sa'ar's irresistible beauty. The Holy Spirit gives spiritual life to all who place their faith in Jesus Christ. Our prayer is that these articles will enrich your life with the assurance that the Holy Spirit is your inseparable Companion, personally commissioned by Jesus to indwell, enlighten, cleanse, and guide you as you seek to walk with God.

IN THIS ISSUE

Eying the Ashes

by *Elwood McQuaid*10
 "Burn, baby, burn!" shouted rioters of yesteryear. Today much of the Middle East is aflame, and what's poised to arise from the ashes is no friend of democracy or freedom.

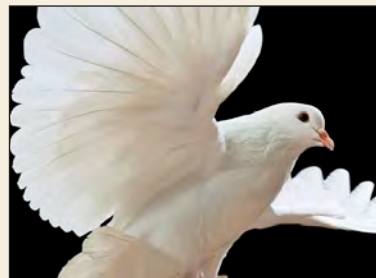

Walking in the Spirit

by *Richard D. Emmons*14
 The Holy Spirit lives within all believers. But sometimes His presence is difficult to detect because we're not living as we ought. Here are the how-tos of walking in the Spirit.

The Holy Spirit: a Believer's Best Friend

by *Adrian Rogers*18
 Few preachers are as practical or inspiring as Adrian Rogers. In this wonderful article, he tells us who the Holy Spirit is and why we are so very blessed to have Him.

The Holy Spirit in the Old Testament

by *Steve Herzig*24
 Some people believe the Holy Spirit is as foreign to the Old Testament as anything could possibly be. And they are so wrong. Here's why.

A Look at the Gifts

by *Charles E. McCracken*26
 Did you ever notice how some people are able to teach the Bible well and others are not? There's a good reason for that, and it has to do with the Holy Spirit.
